Dear Max,

THANK YOU!

As you probably know my firm Calder & Co, Chartered Accountants has been diligently serving clients to what we consider the highest standards since 1883.

I therefore needed quite a lot of convincing before unleashing on a profitable client, a chap in a sparkly jacket who was going to tell them how to run their business better than they were already running it themselves.

But they said they wanted to develop a proper strategy for growth. So I put them in touch with you, and my instinctive confidence in Oxxxygen could not have been better repaid when, recently meeting with them, my client said that thanks to your insightful and insistent input she could hardly recognise now the company that they were a year ago, so far had they come in terms of their structure, focus and progress towards their goals.

So far as I am concerned Max, that is praise indeed from Caesar!

Thank you for serving my client so well.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

IAN ROSMARIN
